Dear [REDACTED]:

Congratulations! You are among those randomly selected and registered for further consideration in the DV-2005 diversity immigrant program for fiscal year 2005 (October 1, 2004 to September 30, 2005). Selection does not guarantee that you will receive a visa because the number of applicants selected is greater than the number of visas available. Please retain this letter and take it with you to your visa interview.

Approximately 100,000 individuals were registered for further processing. However there are only between 50,000 & 55,000 diversity visas available under the FISCAL YEAR 2005 DIVERSITY VISA PROGRAM. Therefore, it is most important that you carefully follow these instructions to increase your chances of possible visa issuance.

Please read and follow all the enclosed instructions very carefully. ALL FORMS AND CORRESPONDENCE must be sent to the Kentucky Consular Center at the above address. Please notify the Kentucky Consular Center of any change in address, addition or deletion of any family members, and any other information which you believe may effect your application.

PLEASE COMPLETE AND RETURN FORMS 230 PART I, 230 PART II, AND DSP-122 FOR YOURSELF AND FORMS 230 PART I AND 230 PART II FOR ALL ACCOMPANYING FAMILY MEMBERS TO THE KENTUCKY CONSULAR CENTER. WRITE THE CASE NUMBER IN THE UPPER RIGHT HAND CORNER OF EACH FORM. PLEASE MAKE SURE ALL BLOCKS ARE COMPLETED.

Please be advised that even though you send all of the above listed documents to the KCC, your case may not be scheduled for an interview appointment until a visa number is available. You will only be contacted by the KCC when a visa appointment is scheduled. Please do not call us to check when your case will be scheduled.

If it should be necessary to contact the Kentucky Consular Center by telephone YOU MUST ALWAYS REFER TO YOUR NAME AND CASE NUMBER EXACTLY AS THEY APPEAR BELOW. Your case number should be clearly written in the upper right hand corner of ALL documents and correspondence sent to the Kentucky Consular Center.

Case Number: 2005EU [REDACTED]
PA Name: [REDACTED]

2005EU [REDACTED]

Please return this barcode sheet to facilitate the processing of your case when you return the DSP 122 and OF230 (Parts I & II) to the Kentucky Consular Center (KCC).

CONGRATULATIONS!

You are among those randomly selected and registered for further consideration in the Diversity Immigrant Visa program for fiscal year 2005 (October 1, 2004 to September 30, 2005). Please read the instructions and follow them carefully to continue processing your application. In order to help insure that all available visas are used each year, more people are randomly selected than there are visas; thus visa issuance to you cannot be guaranteed, even if you meet all the qualifications, and it is important that you complete and return the forms listed below as quickly as possible. After you return all of the forms listed below and if there are appointments available, we will schedule you for an interview at the appropriate embassy/consulate. You will be contacted by the Department of State by mail if you are selected for an interview.

IMPORTANT BASIC DV-2005 REQUIREMENTS

The law creating the Diversity Immigrant Visa Program states that to qualify for a diversity visa, you must have either a high school education, or its equivalent, or two years of work experience. A high school education means successful completion of a formal course of elementary and secondary education comparable to completion of a 12-year course in the United States. If you are qualifying with work experience, you must have two years of experience in the last five years in an occupation which, by U.S. Department of Labor definitions, requires at least two years of training or experience. The U.S. Department of Labor provides information on job duties, knowledge and skills, education and training, and other occupational characteristics at their website <http://www.doleta.gov/programs/onet/> or <http://stats.bls.gov/oco/oco2007.htm>. You must have either a high school education or sufficient work experience to qualify for a DV visa.

If you do not meet one of these requirements, you are not eligible to be issued a diversity visa. Only you, as the principal applicant, must meet this requirement. Your spouse and children do not have to meet this requirement. DO NOT CONTINUE WITH THIS APPLICATION IF YOU DO NOT MEET THE EDUCATION OR WORK EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENT.

If you are scheduled for a visa interview, at the time of the interview consular officers will evaluate medical exam results, financial evidence, and police certificates. So, you must bring the original and one copy of all the documents listed in the enclosed instructions and your original notification letter to your interview. You are required to provide the consular officer with the English language translation of any non-English language documents. If you do not have all the required original documents your visa application will not be processed or completed. The decision about whether you meet all the requirements for a diversity visa will be made at the time of your visa interview.

If you have had additional children since entering the DV lottery, or your immediate family situation has changed, notify us and send a copy of the birth certificate or marriage certificate to the Kentucky Consular Center.

INSTRUCTIONS

STEP 1

Arrange and complete the following forms that are included in this packet:

Form DSP-122 (Supplemental Registration for the Diversity Immigrant Visa Program) – Only the Principal Applicant needs to complete Form DSP-122.

Form DS-230 Part I (Application for Immigrant Visa and Alien Registration - Biographic Data Sheet) – Principal Applicant and all family members applying for a Diversity Visa must submit Form DS-230 Part I.

Form DS-230 Part II (Application for Immigrant Visa and Alien Registration - Sworn Statement) DO NOT SIGN THIS FORM AT THIS TIME. Principal Applicant and all family members applying for a Diversity Visa must submit an unsigned Form DS-230 Part II.

STEP 2

Obtain one (1) passport size full face photograph for each family member and yourself and one (1) passport size $\frac{3}{4}$ face photograph for each family member and yourself. You should submit a total of 2 photographs (one full face and one $\frac{3}{4}$ view) for each family member applying for a Diversity Immigrant Visa.

- Two (2) photographs for each diversity visa applicant are required. One must be an unmounted, full face photo, as described below. The other must be a photo showing the entire face of the person in a $\frac{3}{4}$ view, as described below.
- Both of the two photographs must have been taken within the last six months.
- Using felt pen to avoid mutilation of the photographs, lightly print the name of the subject on the back of both photos.
- These two (2) photographs must be submitted with the Application for Immigrant Visa and Alien Registration (DS-230) and Supplemental Registration for the Diversity Immigrant Visa Program (DSP-122).
- Digitally reproduced photographs must be reproduced without discernible pixels or dot patterns. Photocopied photographs are not accepted.

These requirements apply to the full face photo which must be submitted for each applicant.

Photo Size

The full face photo for each visa applicant submitted must measure:

- The head (measured from the top of the hair to the bottom of the chin) should measure between 1 inch to 1 3/8 inches (25 mm to 35 mm) with the eye level between 1 1/8 inch to 1 3/8 inches (28 mm and 35 mm) from the bottom of the photo.

Photo Appearance

- The photograph must be a full-face view in which the visa applicant is facing the camera directly.
- The applicant should not look down or to either side, and the face should cover about 50 percent of the photo area.
- Side or angled views are NOT accepted.
- The photograph may be in color or black and white, but must have only a white or off-white background. Photos with dark, busy, or patterned backgrounds will not be accepted.
- In general, the applicant's head, including both face and hair, should be shown from the crown of the head to the tip of the chin on top and bottom and from hairline side-to-side. It is preferable that ears be exposed.
- Head coverings and hats are only acceptable due to religious beliefs, and even then, may not cover any portion of the applicant's face.
- Sunglasses or other wear which detracts from the face are not acceptable unless required for medical reasons (an eye patch, for example).
- A photograph depicting a person wearing a traditional facemask or veil that does not permit adequate identification is not acceptable.
- Photos of military, airline, or other personnel wearing hats are not acceptable. Photographs of applicants wearing tribal, national costume, or other headgear not specifically religious in nature are not acceptable.

These requirements apply to the ¾ view photo which must be submitted for each applicant, in addition to the full face photo.

Photo Size

- Photograph outer dimension must be larger 1 3/8" x 1 5/8" (35mm x 40mm), but head size (including hair) must fit within the size illustrated (1" x 1 1/4") (26mm x 30mm)

Photo Appearance

- Photographs must show the subject in a ¾ frontal portrait as shown.
- Unless the applicant wears a head covering required by religion, the right ear (without earring) must be exposed, and head covering must not be worn.
- Photograph must be color with a white background. Surface of the photograph must be glossy finish.
- Photographic image must be sharp and correctly exposed. Photograph must be un-retouched.

Please see <http://travel.state.gov/photorequirementsivdv.html> for more detailed information regarding the photo requirements.

LOOKING AHEAD

APPLYING AT AN EMBASSY OR CONSULATE

If KCC receives the completed forms listed above while visa numbers are still available, you will be sent an appointment date and time for your visa interview at a U.S. Embassy/Consulate and information on how and where you, your spouse and children (if they will immigrate with you) can obtain medical examinations. DO NOT GIVE UP YOUR JOB, DISPOSE OF YOUR PROPERTY, OR MAKE ANY FINAL TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS BEFORE YOU RECEIVE YOUR IMMIGRANT VISA. If and when your immigrant visa is approved, you will have six months (from the issuance date) to travel to and enter the United States.

Each applicant must be prepared to pay on the appointment day all fees required in connection with applying for a diversity visa. Prior to your appointment, please review items #32 and #33 from the Fee Schedule at <http://travel.state.gov/2002feechart.html> to obtain the most current fee information.

Only contact the KCC to report a change of address or change in your family's status, such as death, marriage, divorce, birth of a child, etc.

Once KCC notifies you of your appointment date for the immigrant visa interview along with information concerning medical examinations, the American Embassy or Consulate abroad will conduct all further processing. Do not contact the Embassy/Consulate where you will apply until your appointment date has been set.

One final note: This letter only concerns processing of the DV-2005 visa. If you are also registered under another immigrant visa category, you should continue to process the other case using the instructions sent to you separately under that visa category.

APPLYING FOR ADJUSTMENT OF STATUS IN THE U.S.

If you are in the United States, you may be eligible to apply to the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), formerly INS, for adjustment of status. Please note that the laws regarding adjustment of status have recently changed. The option to adjust status may no longer be available to all applicants. To determine whether or not you may adjust status you must contact the USCIS. If the USCIS confirms your eligibility to adjust status you should take this packet of documents to your local USCIS office. USCIS will provide instructions on how to proceed. It will not be necessary for you to contact the KCC for any further information or instructions if you apply to adjust status in the United States, and the KCC will not contact you again.

If your spouse and/or children live outside the United States, they may be eligible to apply for immigrant visas under the Diversity Visa program at an U.S. Embassy or Consulate General. However, the Embassy/Consulate cannot process your family members' applications until notification is received from USCIS advising that you have adjusted status. The USCIS will not automatically notify the embassy or consulate that you have adjusted status and that your family members will apply abroad for their visas to join you. You must request the USCIS to notify the embassy or consulate where your family intends to apply. The embassy or consulate must also be notified of the address where your family members can be contacted to schedule an interview.

Please remember that your spouse and/or children must apply for and be issued immigrant visas before the Diversity Visa program ends on September 30, 2005. They will not be eligible to apply for or be issued visas under this program after that date. It is therefore important that the embassy or consulate receives notification from USCIS in time to process the visas before the end of DV-2005 and/or before all DV numbers are used up. For additional information on adjusting your status in the United States, please refer to www.uscis.gov.

If USCIS determines that you are eligible to adjust status you will be required to pay a non-refundable diversity visa (currently $100) fee directly to the Department of State. This fee is assessed to cover the cost incurred by the Department in running the DV Program and is separate from any fees you will need to pay USCIS as part of your adjustment application. You must pay the diversity visa fee per person; that is a fee for yourself and for each member of your immediate family who plans to adjust status with you in the United States.

Family members living overseas will pay the diversity visa fee at the embassy/consulate where they will receive their visa. The fee for these family members must not be paid in the United States. Please consult the Fee Schedule at <http://travel.state.gov/2002feechart.html> for further information.

In order to complete payment of this fee, once the USCIS has accepted your case, fill out the receipt form at the bottom of this page, cut it off and mail it along with your cashier's check, or U.S. postal money order (made payable to the U.S. Department of State) for the correct amount depending on the number of people who will adjust status (currently $100.00 for one, $200.00 for two, etc.) to the address below. Also, you must include a stamped, self-addressed envelope in which this receipt, stamped to confirm your payment, will be returned to you. You should present this receipt to USCIS at the time of your adjustment interview. Failure to do so may delay the processing of your case. Please include your case number on the check or postal money order.

Please mail the form below, a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and your check to the following address:

U.S. Department of State

If you do not send the necessary items to the above address your case may be delayed. The above address and the form below are to be used for fee payment only. (Any correspondence or materials enclosed with this form will not be acknowledged or recorded.)
